A big hello

from Tour International

TOUR-INTERNATIONAL

#TIRUGBYFESTIVALS

We know you have a wide choice of festivals, and we never take it for granted that you are considering joining us. Looking at the teams who joined us this year, we're thrilled that so many are already planning to return in 2026. We can't wait to see you again and reconnect with the friendships we've built together!

To the teams discovering us for the first time, we're equally excited to welcome you and discover new friendships that we hope will last for many years to come.

Whether you're returning or joining us for the first time, we are eager to welcome you to a wonderful, family-friendly weekend at the South Coast Festival of Rugby 2026.

See you all in 2026!

Sample Itinerary

RUGBY FESTIVALS

2026

◀ FRIDAY Teams and families arrive from across the UK—time to check in and unwind!

◀ SATURDAY Day One – Competitive Age Groups: Group stage matches run in morning and afternoon sessions within a three-hour window, following RFU age grade guidance.

Competitive teams play 3 matches to qualify for Sunday and non-Competitive Age Groups focus on fun and enjoyment. Teams are drawn randomly, no scores are kept for non-competitive age groups, and all players receive medals.

The day concludes late afternoon; teams, families, and supporters return to their accommodation to relax and enjoy the evening.

◀ SUNDAY Whether you take home the silverware or not, the festival climaxes with great rugby and stage presentations amid a lively, buzzing atmosphere. Presentations are made within 45 minutes of each final.

Competitive age groups play final group stages, quarter-finals, semi-finals, finals, and play-offs, while non-competitive teams enjoy fun, no-pressure matches, drawn at random, with no scores recorded. Loud cheers, applause, and medals celebrate every player!

All presentations feature celebration music, with teams called up by the MC—bring your cameras for unforgettable moments!

The day concludes as teams return to their accommodation to enjoy their final night on tour.

◀ MONDAY After an unforgettable weekend of rugby and fun, head home with lasting memories from South Coast Festival of Rugby.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I bring my dog to the Rugby Festival?

Yes, dogs on leads are very welcome; however, we ask that dogs are not walked across any pitches. Please note, not all accommodation options allow dogs.

Is the festival site wheelchair friendly?

The site is accessible for wheelchair users, but assistance may be needed in some areas depending on the weather. The main festival area is laid to grass, while the routes from the car park and entrances are all hard standing and have wheelchair access.

Will there be any cash points at the festival site?

No, there will not be any cash points at the Rugby Festival site..

Can we pre-book meals at the Rugby Festival?

Yes. Closer to the festival, we will update this information pack with the menus being offered by the catering company. Once the menus have been added, we will also provide a link where teams can pre-book meals. Any teams or clubs wishing to organise meals for a large group are strongly advised to pre-book, as the caterers get very busy and may not be able to accommodate large orders on the day.

Is there drinking water at the festival?

Yes, there are drinking water taps available on-site. In addition, bottled water can be purchased from vendors.

Are there any toilets and showers on-site?

There are showers available for players. However, due to the large number of teams attending and the limited number of showers, we ask that, where possible, teams arrive in their kits and shower once they return to their accommodation. Toilets are available on-site.

Can we park our own coach on-site?

No, you will not be able to park your own coach on-site. Your coach may drive up to the entrance of the site to drop players off and collect them from the Bus Bay Area, which is reserved for coach transfers. Coaches cannot wait or park at the Rugby Festival site.

Will there be accessibility parking on-site?

Yes, there will be parking for vehicles displaying an accessibility badge in front of the leisure centre, immediately next to the Rugby Festival site. However, please note there are limited spaces in the designated accessibility car park.
