Angie
Stow on the wold U13 RFC

"Thank you so much for an awesome weekend, everyone had a great time, rugby was well organised and the site at Westward Ho was great. Our U13's at stow enjoyed every minute."

“ Just wanted to say a massive thank you for the best West Coast Festival. Ilkeston U15's had the best time - kids and parents alike, and we won the age group cup too! The Caravan Park was perfect, we met some top people from other teams. ”

Claire, Ilkeston U15 RFC

A family-friendly, fun, and fantastic rugby weekend awaits mini and junior rugby teams and their families on the stunning West Coast of Devon! To top it off, our wonderful hosts, Barnstable RFC, help make the West Coast Festival of Rugby the perfect festival experience.

We can't wait to welcome all teams and their families to what promises to be another unforgettable West Coast Festival of Rugby 2026!

Reserve your Club spaces today!

Enjoy live bands on Saturday, meet famous characters like Batman, Spider-Man, and Frozen princesses, get creative with face painting, and, of course, experience an incredible weekend of rugby and socialising. What more could you ask for?

RUGBY FESTIVALS 2026

A big hello

from Tour International

#TIRUGBYFESTIVALS

We know you have a wide choice of festivals, and we never take it for granted that you are considering joining us. Looking at the teams who joined us this year, we're thrilled that so many are already planning to return in 2026. We can't wait to see you again and reconnect with the friendships we've built together!

To the teams discovering us for the first time, we're equally excited to welcome you and discover new friendships that we hope will last for many years to come.

Whether you're returning or joining us for the first time, we are eager to welcome you to a wonderful, family-friendly weekend at the West Coast Festival of Rugby 2026.

See you all in 2026!

The Festival

Sample Itinerary

2026

- ◀ FRIDAY Teams and families arrive from across the UK—time to check in and unwind!
- ◀ SATURDAY Day One – Competitive Age Groups: Group stage matches run in morning and afternoon sessions within a three-hour window, following RFU age grade guidance.

All teams play for silverware on Day Two, with semi-finals and finals determining winners and 3rd/4th place. Teams typically play 3 matches Saturday, 2 Sunday, with awards presented on stage.

Non-Competitive Age Groups Focus is on fun and enjoyment. Teams are drawn randomly, no scores are kept, and all players receive medals.

The day concludes late afternoon; teams, families, and supporters return to their accommodation to relax and enjoy the evening.

- ◀ SUNDAY Whether you take home the silverware or not, the festival climaxes with great rugby and stage presentations amid a lively, buzzing atmosphere. Presentations are made within 45 minutes of each final.

Competitive age groups play final group stages, quarter-finals, semi-finals, finals, and play-offs, while non-competitive teams enjoy fun, no-pressure matches, drawn at random, with no scores recorded. Loud cheers, applause, and medals celebrate every player!

All presentations feature celebration music, with teams called up by the MC—bring your cameras for unforgettable moments!

The day concludes as teams return to their accommodation to enjoy their final night on tour.

- ◀ MONDAY After an unforgettable weekend of rugby and fun, head home with lasting memories from the West Coast Festival of Rugby.

RUGBY FESTIVALS 2026

FAQ

Frequently Asked Questions

Can I bring my dog to the Rugby Festival?

Yes, dogs on leads are very welcome; however, we ask that dogs are not walked across any pitches. Please note, not all accommodation options allow dogs.

Is the festival site wheelchair friendly?

The site is accessible for wheelchair users, but assistance may be needed in some areas depending on the weather. The main festival area is laid to grass, while the routes from the car park and entrances are all hard standing and have wheelchair access.

Will there be any cash points at the festival site?

No, there will not be any cash points at the Rugby Festival site.

Is there drinking water at the festival?

Yes, there are drinking water taps available on-site. In addition, bottled water can be purchased from vendors.

Are there any toilets and showers on-site?

There are showers available for players. However, due to the large number of teams attending and the limited number of showers, we ask that, where possible, teams arrive in their kits and shower once they return to their accommodation. Toilets are available on-site.

Can we park our own coach at the rugby festival site?

No, you will not be able to park your own coach on-site. Your coach can drop you off close to the festival site, just a short flat walk to the rugby festival site, drop you off and collect you from the bus bay area reserved for coach transfers, but your coach cannot wait or park at the coach pickup + drop off point.

Will there be accessibility parking on-site?

Yes, there will be parking for vehicles displaying an accessibility badge in front of the leisure centre, immediately next to the Rugby Festival site. However, please note there are limited spaces in the designated accessibility car park.
